

Migrating to a New Version of APLNext Application Server

- Stop all prior APLNext Application Server web services
  - Use the prior APLNext Application Server Administration tool to stop all web sites and the web server for which it is configured.
- Prepare a viable backup of the target server machine
- Export the configuration file for the prior version of the server
  - Use the prior version of the APLNext Application Server Administration tool to export the configuration file
  - Note the directory to which the configuration file was exported
- Uninstall the prior version of APLNext Application Server
  - Use an appropriate method to uninstall the prior version of the software
- Install the new version of APLNext Application Server
  - Follow the installation instructions for the new version of the APLNext Application Server software
  - Note the directory to which the new version of APL WebServices has been installed
- Import the prior configuration file to the new APLNext Application Server version
  - Use the new version of the APLNext Application Server Administration tool to import the prior configuration file
- Start the configured web services using new APLNext Application Server version
  - Using the new APL WebServices Administration Tool, start each web site in the configuration window
  - Using the new APL WebServices Administration Tool, start the web server